

POLICE ASKED TO FIND
MISSING BRIDGMAN BOY

Son of W. A. Bridgman of No. 20 East Forty-eighth Street Disappeared Tuesday Afternoon.

W. A. Bridgman of No. 20 East Forty-eighth street has asked the police of the East Fifty-first street station to help him find his younger son, Roger L. Bridgman, sixteen years old, who has been missing from home since Tuesday afternoon.

The boy, according to his father, left home saying he was going to Van Cortlandt Park. He was dressed in a brown knickerbocker suit, with gray stockings and a gray cap. His shoes were snappy. He is slender and 5 feet 7 inches in height. There is a scar back of his right ear and he has lost the hearing of that ear.

All other information regarding his disappearance was refused at the Bridgman home to-day.

The Identification Bureau at Police

Headquarters has no record of the finding of any person whose description resembles that of the Bridgman boy.

No one who has ever used it has anything but praise for
